

HONESTY

If someone were to call you a liar or a cheat how would you feel? Chances are you would feel as if someone is attacking your character: the very core of who you are!

Being honest takes a lot of work. It takes diligence and perseverance. Honesty must be acknowledged not as something that we do, but a character of who we are.

Adrian Gee is an up and coming YouTube sensation: he creates and implements various entertainment videos as well as social experiments. In the following video "The Real Blind Man Honesty Test", Adrian pretends to be a blind man asking for change. The results are shocking! (<https://youtu.be/LjufgOcZLZs>)

"Before us lie two paths - honesty and dishonesty. The shortsighted embark on the dishonest path; the wise on the honest. For the wise know the truth; in helping others we help ourselves; and in hurting others we hurt ourselves. Character overshadows money, and trust rises above fame. Honesty is still the best policy."

-Napoleon Hill

“Be the change you want to see in the world.
In order to do this successfully we must pursue honesty for the sake of ourselves and those who we seek to serve.”

-Ghandi

- 1 In a day an age where other's feelings are even more predominant, do we speak honestly to people?
- 2 Are we able to capture our thoughts and feelings in a way that makes logical sense while honoring those we are in relationship with?
- 3 Or, do we provide lip-service to people: ultimately speaking words that we think people want or need to hear?
